

Debbie Georgianni – Profile – 3-14-2015

Debbie Georgianni is a writer and inspirational speaker.

While her vocation in the Catholic Church spanned 25 years in the Diocese of Phoenix, primarily focusing on Religious Education, currently she is the Community Relations Representative and Announcer for Immaculate Heart Radio in Phoenix, Las Vegas and Salt Lake City.

Thankfully, Debbie has been able to use both her Business Management Degree and Masters in Theology on a regular basis!

Debbie's exciting newest ministry is coming this Spring when she joins Jerry Usher on a new "Take 2" show, a live, interactive program that will encourage listeners to take a fresh look at who they are and the culture of life they live in.

"Take 2" Radio show will be heard weekdays on EWTN, who will also produce the show!

Debbie is happily married to Marty. They have two grown sons and now a beautiful daughter in law.

She looks forward to what each day will bring and enjoys all that she does; fully aware that every success, opportunity and challenge is a gift of God, with grace given to sustain.
